

IT Carlow Lecturer BBS (Hons) Aviation & Transport and BBS (Hons) Emergency Services

Claire O' Donoghue - Claire was conferred with honours BSc in Psychology with the Open University in 2002. She also achieved an honours BA in Education and Training with NUI, Galway in 2002.

She obtained a Master's Degree in Management and Organisation studies from UCD's Smurfit Graduate Business College, Dublin in 2005.

In 1979, she joined the Department of Transport as a Communications Assistant with the Air Navigation Services. She has worked in various roles with the Irish Aviation Authority since its inception in 1993. She is currently a Senior Aviation Executive in the Irish Aviation Authority.

Claire was a member of the Board of Irish Aviation Authority from 2008 – 2012.

She is currently a part-time lecturer on the BBs programme (subjects: Aviation, Transport Case Studies, EU Aviation & Transport, Communications, Motivation & Leadership) Claire was also involved with the inception of the IAA's College Ireland and had responsibility for the development and coordination of course curriculum materials and accreditation with DIT, FÁS, FETAC and Carlow IT.

She has also lectured and administered the Certificate of Personnel Practice with the Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD) from 2004 – 2009 with the VEC in Coláiste Íde, Finglas, Dublin 11.