

IT Carlow Lecturer BBS (Hons) in Aviation & Transport and BBS (Hons) in Emergency Services

Sharon Gallagher - Sharon is a research and health psychologist, specialising in the area of trauma and Critical Incident Stress Management with Emergency Services. She also specialises in psychosocial risk assessment for at risk occupational groups. She is currently the Coordinator and Education Officer for CISM Network Ireland and has been the Principal Investigator for the National Ambulance Service CISM Project since 2007.

She obtained a psychology degree at NUI Galway, a postgraduate H. Dip in Health Psychology at the University of Southampton and a Masters degree (by major thesis) in psychology at NUI Maynooth. Sharon has worked in the Department of Psychology NUI Maynooth, the State Claims Agency, the Pre-Hospital Emergency Care Council (PHECC) (the statutory body for the pre-hospital emergency services) and the HSE.