

IT Carlow Lecturer BBS (Hons) Emergency Services

Stephen Brady - Stephen joined Dublin Fire Brigade in 1973, learning the skills and the art of Fire Fighting, Rescue and Emergency Medical Response. During his extensive career Stephen was promoted through the ranks from Fire Fighter to Chief Officer. He was heavily involved in development of training at both local and national level. He was a member of the Fire Service Council for a number of years. In 2001 he became a consultative member of the Farrell Grant Sparks Review of the Fire and Emergency Service in Ireland. He was also chair of the Trade Union Group for a number of years.

In his role as assistant Chief Fire Officer he had responsibilities for Human Resources, Health and Safety, and Logistics; In keeping with his pioneering approach Stephen introduced the workforce planning system that seen introduction of a Bachelor of Honours Degree in Emergency Service. Stephen is a chartered member of the institution of Occupational Safety and Health, and an associate member of the Institute of Fire Engineers and also a member of the International Association of Fire Chiefs.